otherwise have attached to him. It is supposed that he quictly came out of the alley, leaving his weapon behind, when officer Cook started in pursuit of Corrie. When arrested he asked the officers the charge against him, and they made no reply—he then asked it it was for killing Robert Rigion, and they told him that was the charge.

Shertly after the intelligence reached the Western pohice station, an officer was despatched for Dr. Greentree, one of the Coroners, but he do not make his appearance until hearly eleven o'clock. Upon his arrival the following gentlemen were sworn in as jarors:—Caleb Douly, foreman, Bernard C. Reed, James F. Moulton, John T. Tucker. Samael H. B. Merryman, Joseph K. Milnor, M. M. Fre, John Bert, Jebn Penn, Robert Hamilton, William Weir, John Green and Albert Bell.

Br. Georga G. Furnandis, one of the surgeons of the Aimsbouse, was then called, and requested to make a post mortem examination of the body, which he proceeded to do. In the meantime the jury agreed to take recess of one hour (it being then haif-past eleven o'clock), and then assembled at the Western police station. The post mortem was regarded as an important matter, for the reason that one of the accused, Marion Cropps, a few days since, in conversation with several parties who were standing on the corner of Baltimore and Green streets, exhibited a number of bullets, with which he declared he in tended to kill a certain policeman of the Western district.

The coroner's jury were progressing with their investigation at one o'clock this morning, when we were compelled to go to press.

There was a strong disposition at the Western station, on the part of the neighbors and friends of officer Rigdon, who was highly esteemed as an officer and a clizen, to lynch Corre, as soon as he was arrested, but the officers succeeded in securing him and locking him up before it could be carried into effect.

Officer Rigdon had frequently mentioned to his wife that he feared he would be assassinated on account of his testimony in the Gambr AWFUL CATASTROPHE. Terrible Steamboat Explosion and Loss of Life-Total Bestruction of the Propeller Pe-About a quartert, one o'clock yes erday afternoon a sad calamity occured on the North liver, near the foot of Jay street. A smill propeller, named the Petrel, exploded her boiler, andwas blown to atoms. Three men lost their lives, while afourth was badly injured. The Petrel, it appears, was abut 35 or 40 feet long, and was manned by a crew of fourpersons, namely: ——, pilot; Henry Brink, engineer; Elward Downey, fireman, and ——, She was owned by Robert Allen, of Jersey City, and during the past two weeks has been extensively engaged in towing canal bats from New York to Brooklyn and As she was steaming up the river opposite Jay street. as already referred o, the engineer appeared on deck and sainted the engineer of the steamer Broadway, then lying at her wharf at the above pier, and just as he was waving his handkerchief the explosion took place. The scene tha ensued is described as being most terrible. The propeller was blown to pieces and all who were on board were kill ed, with the exception of the fireman Downey. The body of the engineer, Henry Brink, was blown fully one hundred feet into the air, and in its descent fell upon the promonade deck of the steamer Broadway, crushing in the leck with its weight, and forcing its way through to the saloon below. The body of the unfortunate man was mangled in the most shocking manner; one of his legs was entirely blown off, while his entrails pro Downey's escape seems mort wonderful. He was picked up in the water in a half conscious state, suffering consi The Douglas Contest in Illinois. derably from a wound in the head. From the Chicago Tribune, (rep.,) Nov. 4.]

We are unable this morning to give the result of Tuesday's election with a sufficient degree of accuracy to determine the complexion of the Legislature—the chief point of interest.

According to our tables, with all the returns received up to midnight before us, the result thus far is as follows:—

BOUGH MEDICAL TOTAL OF SECRETARITYS.

Lincoln men. 25

Not heard from 9

Dougtas men. 11
Doubtful.

Of the doubtful districts we have the best chance for Madleon and for Hancek—the former composed of the counties of Madison, Bend and Montgomery, the other of Hanceck, Henderson and Schuyler. We dare not assert that we have carried both, but the indications favor a belief in our triumph. The contest is very close, and, as the reader will see, exceedingly doubtful. We now in cline to the opinion that we have both houses; but to morrow will probably remove all doubt. But let our friends hold themselves until there can be no mistake, and then de what the news prompts. SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Nov. 6, 1858.
Eighty three counties in this State have sent in their returns, and if the remaining counties vote as in 1856, the democratic State ticket will have a small majority.

The seventh overland mail from San Francisco via the Batterfield route, arrived in this city last night, only liventy five days out.

The rainy season was setting in in portions of the State. The Stockton Republican says it has heard rumors of some great diggings that have been discovered in the vicinity of Sait Spring Valley, Calaveras county, distant seme thirty miles from Stockton, and said to be very extensive. The Republican does not deem it advisable to gay move until it hears further particulars from the locality.

The Los Angelos Fineyard of the 9th says:—
On Thursday, the 7th inst., the overland mail from St. Louis and Memphis arrived at 1 o'clock P. M., with one through passenger, Mr. Ormsby, of the New York Haralle. The event was celebrated by the firing of a salute this evening.

The Hon. A. R. Moloney, the newly elected State Comptroller, had been sworn in and commissioned by the Governor, but had not taken possession of the office, the duties of which are still performed by Col. Whitman, the old incumbent.

In San Francisco a large amount of debased coin was in caculation.

A number of old $20 California pieces, of Kellogg & Co.'s coinage, have been found to be badly sweated. Some of the banking bouses have paid many of them out, but have refused to take them again on deposit. An instance of this kind occurred vesterday.

A business man having large dealings with several banks, went round coilecting the cash on a number of checks in his possession, and received in return a number of $20 gold pieces, which he threw promisenously into a bag he was carrying, and which contained a large amount of United States coin. He supposed they were perfectly good; but on making a deposite late in the day, they refused to take them at one of the banks, giving as a reason that Keilogg & Co.'s coin were not of current value as stamped upon their face.

reason that Kenogg & Co. 8 com were not of current value as stamped upon their face.

It was impossible to tell at which bank he got them, as after he drew the checks he emptied the pieces in the bag containing the good coin, where it became all mixed up together. The coin had evidently been tampered with since it was issued by Kellogg & Co. Besides this kind of money there is a large amount of counterfeit $5 pieces in circulation.

UNION COURSE, LONG ISLAND—TROTTINGA trotting match for $2,000, mile heats, in harness, came off over the Union Course on Friday afternoon, between black gelding Native American and bay gelding Lantern. The black horse won the race with the most apparent The winning horse belongs to Mr. Mounoit, was raised in Kentucky, and, from the sample shown on this occasion of performance in public—it is certain he ranks second to few if any in the land. The time made was most excelto the start, at one hundred to sixty-showing conclusively in this time was well known; and as soon as the word was given one hundred to thirty was offered, without takers, that he would win. Lantern cut his quarter badly in the second heat, but the accelent had nothing to do with the result of the race, as he was besten before it occurred. Lantern struck himself after he broke up on passing the drawgate, the black horse at the time being several lengths in front.

First Heat.—Native American took the lead with the word and kept it to the end, notwithstanding the many determined efforts of Lantern was flerce until he left his legs, which was before he reached the two mile distance stand. The black horse had too much foot for Lantern, and trotted beautifully throughout the heat. Time, 2.34. The last had more was done in 1.36.

Second Heat.—One hundred to twenty was effered on Native American, and no takers. They went off nicely together at the first attempt, and kept side by side about haltway around the upper turn, when Lantern broke up and the black horse opened a gap of two or three lengths. After that the black went on very rapidly, without a skip or break, and won by half a dozen inquits. Lantern again broke up at the two mile distance stand. Time, 2.224, Lantern est has quarter badly in this heat, after he broke up the last time. The following is a summary—
